

My wife and I are pleased to make this pledge. When we consider all the people who give of their lives to help those most in need, how could we not provide such modest support as this commitment asks of us? And so we give freely as an expression of thanks to those selfless others who are doing good to eradicate the effects of poverty, particularly among the young, the under-educated, the under-nourished, and the medically untreated

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'C. Nelson', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Christopher B. Nelson
President
St John's College, Annapolis, MD